

Joseph Bozzo is a Physician Assistant who completed his undergraduate degree at DeSales University in Medical Studies. He went on to complete his Master's Degree in Physician Assistant Studies at DeSales University. In 2009, he joined Eastern Pennsylvania Infectious Disease Associates and has been practicing in the field of infectious diseases since then.

Prior to becoming a Physician Assistant, Joseph Bozzo volunteered his time as an Emergency Medical Technician at the Waldwick Volunteer Ambulance Corps.

Joseph Bozzo treats patients with a wide range of acute and chronic infectious conditions in both the inpatient and outpatient setting.